Commander's Message Kelly Libby, S

The Seattle Boat Show is now over and went off with great success! I was lucky to be a part of it and representing a gently used 42' Nordic Tug on Lake Union. I sure hope the numbers at the boat show are an indication of the economy on its way back up again! 1,700 people came last year to the Lake on opening day and this year attendance was measured at 4,000+. It was great to meet a lot of nice people who are boaters or that want to be. Those that want to be boaters got my "Power Squadron" spiel, of course! We should all take pride in the fact that we belong to a now, 100 year, fraternal boating organization; quite an accomplishment for USPS!

Our Squadron rendezvous schedule is in this issue and as always, a lot going on. Thank you to Paul and Donna for putting on a great planning meeting in January. Hope to see you at some or all of these events! Always a lot of fun!

Next Thursday's meeting will feature a presentation from Ted Schlund, San Juan Marine Area Manager with Washington State Parks. Bring your questions and comments to the meeting, he told me he is always looking for feedback to make the marine parks a better destination for all boaters like ourselves! If you would like to purchase an annual moorage pass, he'll have those available as well.

Hope to see you at Thursday's meeting and if you need a ride to the meeting, please call me and we'll make it happen – phone: 425-359-7078.

Executive Department Kari Randall-Secret, N

Mega-thanks to Donna and Paul for all of their fantastic efforts and time spent organizing and coordinating our annual planning meeting last month where we developed our event calendar for 2014! I would also like to thank everyone else who participated in the fun! We've scheduled up a full year of great activities for this year, and I look forward to seeing everyone out and about.

We are now accepting squadron shirt orders for 2014! Our color is "maroon" and you'll find the order form towards the back of this newsletter. We'll be getting the first order in right away so please be sure to get your order in as soon as possible. It may be several weeks until we submit a second one, so don't miss out. You can bring your completed order form and check to the upcoming Feb. 9th meeting at the Farmhouse Restaurant, and I'll bring extra forms to the meeting if anyone needs one. If you prefer, you may also mail your order form and check to me at P.O. Box 1919, Mount Vernon, 98273. Be sure to let me know if you have any questions.

Speaking of the February meeting ... it is scheduled for Thursday, February 9th at the Farmhouse at our usual time with social beginning at 6:00 pm, meeting at 6:30 and dinner at 7:00. Cheers everyone!

Boating Activities
By P/C Donna Mason, AP

Ah, that time of year when gardeners pour through seed catalogs and boaters dream of great adventures in the coming season. The Seattle Boat Show is over. It's time to grab your calendars and mark these dates so you won't miss out.

At January's meeting, members drew up an ambitious 2014 plan. We are trying some new things and even stretched the boating season a bit. We threw in a few land adventures for those members without a "rendezvous-able" boat.

If you would like to host an event that lists "Paul and Donna" below, please let me know. We would love to have more people hosting our squadron events.

February 15 – Celebrate 100th Anniversary of USPS at Prima Bistro

See announcement elsewhere in this newsletter for a picturesque day trip by car down Whidbey Island to enjoy a delicious lunch.

July 4th is on Friday this year! Join us for an extended weekend rendezvous at Bellingham's Squalicum Harbor Visitors' Dock "U" near Gate 12. Some of will arrive on the 3rd and some may not be able to arrive until the morning of the 4th. Register your plans with Donna. Friday, on the 4th, there will be festivities at the Port and a heavy hors d'oeuvre happy hour-into-potluck dinner on the dock, followed by great fireworks viewing right at our dock. Come by car or boat. Saturday, we can enjoy the Bellingham Farmer's Market and the shops in Fairhaven. Saturday dinner will be whatever we feel like at the time. Please let Donna know if you plan to attend any of these activities.

July 19 – Shipwreck Day, Anacortes

Not a boating activity, but I'll put in a plug since you're checking your calendar. Save this date to donate garage sale items or work our booth in downtown Anacortes. All proceeds help our squadron. This is our biggest fundraiser for the year. Afterward, a group dinner at a nearby restaurant will replenish our energy.

August 15-24 – Squadron Cruise from Deer Harbor, Orcas Island to South Pender Island, B.C., Ganges Harbor, Salt Spring Isl, B.C., & Roche or Friday Harbor

Hosts: Paul Rosetter and Donna Mason

Phone: 360 595-1083, E-mail: donnajmason@gmail.com

Join us for a weekend rendezvous or the whole week's cruise!

Part I: We'll begin with a weekend rendezvous on Orcas Island at Bellport's Deer Harbor Marina. Reserve your boat slip at 360 376-3037, identifying yourself as a Skagit Bay squadron member. If we have 6 boats, we all get the cheaper yacht club rates. The weather usually is like in Hawaii, so bring your Hawaiian shirts for this Hawaii-themed weekend rendezvous. Friday evening dinner will be at The Deer Harbor Inn. Saturday morning take a hike or rent a bike to work up an appetite then enjoy either a casual supper from Lopez Island ice cream to hamburgers at the Marina café or your own cooking. In the afternoon, relax at the dock for happy hour drinks, and enjoy an evening potluck BBQ. Bring your own protein to grill and a side dish to share. Those without boats can arrive by ferry. Some members may only be able to do this weekend rendezvous.

Part II (extend to one week): Sunday morning we'll cruise to Bedwell Harbor, South Pender Island, B.C. where you can check in at the Customs Dock. Then we'll rendezvous two nights at Poet's Cove Resort nearby in Bedwell Harbor. Check their website at www.poetscove.com. From there, on Tuesday morning, we'll cruise to Ganges Marina, Ganges Harbor, Salt Spring Island, B.C., avoiding Zachary and MoneyMaker Rocks, to enjoy this picturesque town, Tuesday Farmer's Market in the afternoon, and perhaps take a tour. Check these websites: www.ganges-marina.com, and saltspringtourism.com. We'll stay at Ganges Marina three nights. Friday morning, we'll return back to the U.S. via either Roche Harbor or Friday Harbor (both offer Customs Docks for re-entry). We'll rendezvous there for two nights. Sunday morning, we'll all return to our various homeports.

Detailed plans haven't been worked out yet. However, some of these marinas fill up by April, so PLEASE CONTACT DONNA ASAP IF YOU ARE PLANNING TO GO ON THIS CRUISE. I'll plan to be in the bar of the Farmhouse Inn by 5 p.m. before our February General Meeting to discuss these tentative plans with anyone interested. Questions: call Donna at 360 595-1083.

September 19-21 – Rosario Resort, Orcas Island

After the high season, enjoy lower slip fees and relax at Rosario Resort's marina. Enjoy hiking, exploring the historic resort, good food and visiting with squadron members. If it rains, play games at a table in the resort. The Saturday 4 p.m. organ performance is free and memorable. More details later.

Hosts: TBD Incoming Commander

SBSPS celebrates its 11th anniversary with our annual cookout at Coronet Bay State Park Picnic area on Whidbey Island near Deception Pass. There is some dock space and RV space but no services. Bring your potluck dish to share with squadron-provided hamburgers and hotdogs for the Saturday afternoon celebration. Come by boat or car.

Weather may result in changing the date to Sunday. For cars without state park permits, let us know and we may be able to arrange picking you up from a parking lot outside the park boundaries.

October 18 – Granville Island, B.C. Day Trip

Hosts: Donna and Paul

Phone: 360 595-1083 E-mail: donnajmason@gmail.com

Celebrate 100th Anniversary of United States Power Squadrons®

P/C Donna Mason, AP

Saturday Noon, February 15, Prima Bistro, Langley, WA

This year we have special reason to celebrate. Many do not know how old USPS® is. Paraphrased from the Boat U.S. Magazine Feb/Mar 2014 issue, Page 21: “when Charles Chapman, from the Boston Yacht Club in Marblehead, MA, saw that people buying newly developed recreational powerboats needed instruction, he devised a boating safety course that was very successful. So much so that Undersecretary of the Navy Franklin Roosevelt encouraged yacht clubs from around the nation to assemble in New York on February 2, 1914, bringing about the United States Power Squadrons.” (I also was told that the Boston Yacht Club didn’t want anything to do with power boats, only sailboats, so a new organization was started for these new recreational powerboats.)

Our foodie members always enjoy a daytrip by car to Langley, WA with lunch at Prima Bistro, French-inspired Northwest casual bistro food. This year we’ll toast our 100th Anniversary!

See the menu at www.primabistro.com. In addition to their varied, yummy entrées, one popular dish is their hamburger with Vermont cheddar cheese. They also have an excellent wine list and other bar offerings. So, work your way by car down to Langley on Whidbey Island at your own pace, and meet for lunch at Noon. The restaurant opens at 11:30 a.m. Free parking is available in the 2nd Street lot, behind the restaurant.

Note about accessibility: The restaurant is located on the second level above the Star Market, up a flight of stairs. There is no elevator.

Prima Bistro
201 ½ First Street, Langley, WA

After lunch, we can walk off the calories exploring around the town along the shore, poking into an intriguing shop or two before heading home.

RSVP by February 8! I need to let the restaurant know how many to seat.

In accordance with the bylaws here are the nominations for elected office for the 2014-2015 Bridge Year. These shall be voted at the March regular meeting.

Port Sidney Marina
Sophisticated Yacht

Skagit Bay and Friday Harbor Joint Rendezvous in Sidney, BC 11-13 April 2014

Hosts: Bob and Jean Miller, bobmillerwa@hotmail.com, 360-588-9950 (home), 360-540-1686 (boat)

Where: Port of Sidney Marina, BC, <http://www.portsidney.com/>, 48° 39' N, 123° 24' W, VHF CH 66A

Come on over to Vancouver Island, BC, and join Bob and Jean Miller (and Bodhi, the orange tabby boat cat) as we visit nearby Sidney on (with luck) a nice Spring weekend. The host boat will be the Loon Song. This will be a great chance for members of the Skagit Bay and Friday Harbor squadrons to check out their boats in preparation for Spring cruising.

The Town of Sidney (sometimes called Sidney-by-the-Sea or the 'Book Store Village' is a great place to spend the weekend, with plenty of good restaurants, nice galleries, and lots of chocolate shops! Bob always says "Chocolate is one of the basic food groups."

The Port Sidney Marina features wide concrete docks, lots of space (at least early in the season), and is located at the base of the main shopping street. Winter rates are still in effect. We may use the Party Dock for a Saturday afternoon 'meet and greet' (if it doesn't get sold before then).

SBSPPS Planned Activities: Not many; this is a way kicked-back rendezvous. Just wander along the streets and waterfront, get some exercise, do some shopping, eat some stuff, and take it easy. On Saturday night we will go to a restaurant, which will be chosen by the rendezvous attendees.

How to Get There --

By Boat: Sidney is about 35 nautical miles from Cap Sante in Anacortes and less than 20 miles from Friday Harbor. If leaving from Anacortes, turn left out of Fidalgo Bay into Guemes Channel and just head west. You may have to dodge some islands and large white and green ferry boats, but the cruise is protected and scenic. Look for the orca pods and other wild life. Upon arriving at the entrance to the channel to the marina, hail Port Sidney Marina on VHF Ch 66A, to get docking directions after you clear Canadian customs inside.

By Ferry: The Anacortes-Sidney Washington State ferry leaves Anacortes at 08:30 am and arrives in Sidney by 11:10 am, with a stop in Friday Harbor (departs Friday Harbor at 09:55 am). On Sunday, catch the 12:05 pm ferry to arrive back in Friday Harbor at 1:20 pm and Anacortes by 3:00 pm.

Lodging in Sidney: There are several hotels within walking distance of the ferry terminal and the marina. <http://www.sidneybritishcolumbia.com/Accommodation/results.asp?region=20&city=43&interest=all&webregionid=1>

Passports and Border Control: US Passports are required to get back into the USA and facilitate entry into Canada. Standard Drivers Licenses are not adequate identification. Ferry riders are checked as they exit in Sidney, and in Friday Harbor. Boaters tie up to the customs dock in the turning basin at the marina and use the direct line phone on the dock for clearance. Returning to the USA, boaters can phone US Customs and Border Protection while underway at 800-562-5943.

Reservations for Your Boat: Please make your own reservation at Port of Sidney Marina on their website at <http://www.portsidney.com/contact-us/reservations/> or phone the office at 250-655-3711. Also send an email to the cruise coordinator (see next section).

To Signup: Send an email to Bob Miller, Skagit Bay SPS, bobmillerwa@hotmail.com, listing the names of the people attending the rendezvous, the date of arrival, mode of arrival (boat, ferry), and the boat name if coming by boat. If on a boat, also include the LOA, beam, and power requirements (30 or 50 amps), and your docking preference (bow or stern in, port or starboard tie).

New rendezvous/highlights included a Canada Gulf Islands cruise, a three-stop cruise, a trip through the locks to Lake Union, and the D/16 Rendezvous in Poulsbo.

Donna had collected the participation history from previous years.

George Brooks suggests that in 2015 we include a dinghy cruise on the Snohomish River, beginning at Everett.

Donna will analyze the results of the meeting and complete the year's rendezvous plan. The plan will be available in an upcoming Bitter End and next month's minutes.

Thanks to Donna and Paul for the extensive effort to complete this task each year.

This particular one is the elections and there is usually a shindig. We would like to get a high attendance from our squadron. If you want to go meet others like you from the rest of the state or have your voice and ideas heard at a higher level or just see how the other squadrons work This is a fun event to do that.

WE also need to have our group well represented. If you want to vote there, let Kelly know. Get your registration in early.
