Commander's Message Donna J. Mason, AP

What a wonderful summer boating season with great weather! Hope you all had safe, fun times on the water. Later in this newsletter you'll see several photos from our squadron rendezvous.

For many SBSPS members, boating will continue for months, and a few hearty souls will boat all year long.

It was a busy summer with other squadron activities, such as Shipwreck Day on July 16, our annual fundraiser, where we earned $1,160. Thanks go to all those to those who loaded trucks from the storage unit Friday: George and Sandy Johnson, George and Jeanne Brooks, Bill and Lynn Stewart, Glen Caporgno, John and Marlene Bellinger, Debbie Richey, Paul Rosetter, and Antony Kerkhove, most of whom also worked the booth Saturday, and to those who also worked the booth on Saturday: Billie Ford, Mark Richey. A big "thank you" goes to all of you who donated items; it really makes a difference! I especially want to thank George and Sandy Johnson who orchestrated this big event and made it their project this year.

I'd like to thank the Audit Committee members Elisabeth Libby and Judy Bennett for completing the audit of squadron accounts with Treasurer Bob Miller in a timely manner.

We're a small squadron and we don't try to conquer the world and win all the awards. But, what we do, we do well. Thanks for all you do!

If you are looking for a book to read, you may be interested in Before the Wind by Jim Lynch. Having written many books, Jim finally wrote about his passion for sailing through the experience of the Johannssen family of boat designers, builders, repairers, and racers. According to a Village Books reviewer, Lynch "melds sailing with science, environmentalism, the rapture, online dating and endearingly dysfunctional family dynamics into a touching story." "Jim Lynch does for sailing what A River Runs Through It did for fly-fishing," according to Luis Alberto Urrea.

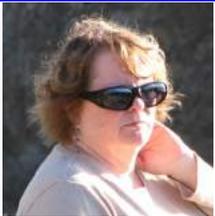

Ferndale residents Tom Broselle and his sons Jake and Tom recently received one of the Coast Guard's highest honors for their rescue. While they were out crabbing weather conditions worsened and they spotted a 5-member family whose boat capsized in rough water off Cherry Point. Four people were clinging to the overturned boat. Tom dove into the 50 degree water and saved the fifth person, a daughter tangled in netting under the boat. The rescued father said, "When I saw Tom coming in the boat, it was like the Queen Mary was saving us." (From The Bellingham Herald, July 6, 2016)

The USCG's 2015 Recreational Boating Safety statistics report there were 4,158 accidents involving 626 deaths, 2,613 injuries and about $42 million of property damage. The fatality rate was 1.9% up from 2014. Think some folks need boating education?

Speaking of boating education, we're looking for members to help with instructing. Please consider it and contact Debbie Richie, our Educational Officer with questions or more information. Have you seen Debbie's helpful, informative postings on FaceBook? If you haven't done so, friend "Skagit Bay Sail and Power Squadron – Boating Education."

We also could use people to be Vessel Safety Checkers (simply checking safety equipment on boats for people who request safety checks). For community outreach: how about a talk at a local library on a topic such as "What's the big deal about boating safety"? There are many ways you can help out your squadron, in a way that fits your time schedule and areas of interest. We'd be happy to hear from you.

The USPS District 16 fall conference will be in nearby Bellingham this year. I'll be attending the Saturday conference October 29, and Paul and I will be at the evening dinner. There is no charge to attend the Saturday conference meeting. This would be a good chance for you to learn more about what other squadrons are doing within our district. Information and registration forms are in this newsletter.

I hope you all had a great summer out on your boat. I know we did. I saw some things this summer that made my hair curl even more! This incident happened as everyone was leaving Deer Harbor on Sunday morning: This morning as I sit here in the Deer Harbor Marina, I've watched way too many close calls of folks leaving their slip. A word of advice, when leaving your slip look and make sure no one else is coming down the fairway behind you. One of our members was leaving his slip and THREE boats all decided that they needed to back out of their slip at the same time as he is backing down the fairway. All of the boats were over 35 feet. Don't forget your horn signals when leaving your slip. We all learn the horn signals in the ABC course. For a refresher one long blast lets other boaters know you are leaving your slip or dock.

At the Sucia Island rendezvous, there were only two boats Brionglroid and ourselves. Brionglroid arrived on Friday afternoon about an hour ahead of us. The Fossil Bay docks were absolutely full! All the mooring buoys in Fossil Bay were also taken. So they tied up to the linear moorage in Echo Bay. There was a spot for us when we arrived about an hour later. We have looked at that tie up before and for us if the line with the rings in it is too high, we can't moor there. But at this particular one in Echo Bay we were able to tie up. It was interesting. Saturday afternoon the wind came up at tide change and all the boats were rocking really well. But after about an hour or so, it calmed down. For the most part, it's just like being tied to a dock. You definitely want to use fenders even though there are Styrofoam floats on the line. They squeak something awful when rubbing on your hull. As you can see in the picture below, you tie up to the rings with a bow line and stern line. You cannot raft off while tied up here. There are two of these systems in Echo Bay and I know of one in Reid Harbor. Try it!

Boating Activities for September

Cdr Donna J. Mason, AP

Saturday September 24: Cornet Bay, Deception Pass State Park, SBSPS Anniversary Picnic

Celebrate our Squadron's Charter by boating or driving to Cornet Bay. The first Charter Party was September 20, 2003. The shelter is reserved for our squadron on this free car parking day; you do not need a day-use parking pass nor a Discover Pass. New this year: because of Washington State Parks burn ban, we will not be grilling anything. We will provide rotisserie chicken, a selection of non-alcoholic beverages, and dining utensils. Bring your side dish or dessert to share, and your choice of preferred beverage. If you bring a hot or cold dish, be prepared to keep it safe until we eat sometime after Noon. RSVP by Thursday, September 22 to donnajmason@gmail.com so we'll have enough chicken for everyone.

September 30 – October 2: Rosario Resort Rendezvous

You can relax and even pamper yourself at the spa this weekend. Make your boat reservation by calling 360 376-2222, ext. 5 for the Marina. The winter rates are in effect: $1/ft. LOA. Call 78A as you near the marina for your slip assignment.

Friday: arrive after 1 p.m., enjoy happy hour at the dock, dining on your own or join us at the Mansion Restaurant for a delicious, fresh dinner around 6 p.m. (I chuckle when I think of the year several of us were calmly seated at the table and then out the window we spotted Kari and Deanna's boat "Briongloid" arriving in the distance. We flew out of the restaurant explaining to the befuddled waiter, "We'll be back; we have to help our friends arriving by boat." Then the waiter added two more seats and we all enjoyed a lively dinner.)

Saturday: relax and enjoy the resort grounds and amenities, or some may want to get a taxi to town for the Farmer's Market and shops. If you haven't experienced it, you'll want to attend the entertaining presentation at 4 p.m. upstairs in the Mansion. At 5 p.m. we'll have happy hour leading to a potluck on the dock (I'm told the Grill building will be closed and not available, but we can try...). Sunday: after breakfast, we'll head off to homeports.

Hope to see you there!

Thinking ahead to December: The Argosy Christmas Ship cruises from Shilshole Bay Marina in Seattle, boards at 2 p.m., cruises from 2:30 – 4:45 p.m. on Saturday, December 17. Several members were interested in a Seattle cruise (vs. the Kirkland one we have done). If you are interested, this fills up fast, so reserve your spot on the Christmas Ship Lead Boat (with chorus) at argosycruises.com or call 1-888-623-1445. Tickets: $39 adult, $35 senior, $25 youth, children under 3 are free. If a group is interested, we could arrange for lunch at a nearby restaurant before the cruise. Please let me know if you are interested.
